

■ Punj Lloyd Bags ₹477-crore Mitsubishi Tankage Order

NEW DELHI Engineering and construction giant Punj Lloyd on Monday said it has bagged ₹477 crore ($75 million) new tankage order from Japan-based Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, taking its order backlog to ₹22,171 crore. "Scope of work entails confirmatory geotechnical investigation, early earth works, construction of two ...tanks on elevated piled foundation of import, storage and re-gasification terminal project of Indian Oil Corporation at Ennore Port in Tamil Nadu," Punj Lloyd said. The project is to be completed in 33 months.